Gokor Chivichyan – MMA Living Legend Award

The youngest of three brothers, Gokor Chivichyan was an aggressive child. After seeing him beat up the older kids in his neighborhood, he was invited to train at Dinamo Studio and a legend was born. After only a year of wrestling, Gokor began training in Sambo and in 1971 won his first tournament, the Armenian Junior National Sambo Championship. At the age of 9 he won his second Championship in the 10-12 age division and qualified to go to Tussis to fight in the 1972 Soviet Junior National Sambo Championships.

From 1974 to 1979, Gokor continued to compete and win championships in Judo and Sambo not only in the Soviet Union, but in Europe and at the World Games. In 1980, he qualified for the Soviet Olympic Judo Team, only to be passed over for a more experienced athlete who won Gold that year.

In 1981, Gokor moved to Los Angeles and began training with the legendary "Judo" Gene LaBell. Learning techniques he had never encountered, Gokor took to the circuit and competed in France, Japan, Thailand, Mexico, Canada, Germany, England and several other countries, including numerous "no holds barred" competitions.

The United States Judo Federation helped Gokor acquire his U.S. citizenship in 1987 allowing him to qualify for the U.S. Olympic Team in 1988, only to come short of the required points to compete.

In 1991, Gokor opened Haystan MMA Academy in Hollywood CA and has drawn students from around the world. Haystan quickly established itself as THE place to train for mixed martial arts fighting. Producing champions in the ring, and in life, Haystan MMA continues to set the bar for MMA training and its stable has included several prominent world class fighters.

Inductee Class of 2017

In over 400 NHF, MMA, Judo, BJJ, Submission Grappling and Sambo fights, Gokor has NEVER lost as a professional fighter.
